1. INDIA AND ITS NEIGHBOURHOOD

1.1. INDIA-CHINA

Why in news?

14th round of talks were held between senior military commanders of India and China to find a solution to the long standoff in the mountains of eastern Ladakh.

More on news

The two sides issued a joint statement saying that they would consolidate earlier outcomes. This is progress from the 13th round of talks, where no joint statement was issued.

India-China Border dispute

- The border between India and China is not clearly demarcated throughout. Along certain stretches of its 3,488-km length, there is no mutually agreed Line of Actual Control (LAC).
  - China shares its land boundary with 14 countries including India, third longest after Mongolia and Russia.
- Border is divided into three sectors, viz. Western, Middle and Eastern (Refer map).
  - Western sector: It pertains to the Johnson Line proposed by the British in the 1860s that put Aksai Chin in the then princely state of Jammu and Kashmir. China, however, does not accept Johnson Line.
  - Middle sector: It is the only one where India and China have exchanged maps on which they broadly agree.
  - Eastern sector: The disputed boundary is over the MacMahon Line.

Border Disputes Settlement Mechanism

A series of five agreements signed between India and China to address disputes arising over the LAC:

- 1993: Agreement on the Maintenance of Peace and Tranquility along the LAC
- 1996: Agreement on Confidence-Building Measures in the Military Field Along the LAC
- 2005: Protocol on Modalities for the Implementation of Confidence-Building Measures in the Military Field Along the LAC
- 2012: Agreement on the Establishment of a Working Mechanism for Consultation and Coordination on India-China Border Affairs
- 2013: Border Defense Cooperation Agreement
One China Policy
Recent US declaration to defend Taiwan if China Attacks is seemingly changing of long-standing American “strategic ambiguity” on the issue.

- US recognises China’s claims over Taiwan under its One-China Policy but under the Taiwan Relations Act, 1979, US is committed to help Taiwan in the event of invasion by China.
  - Under one China Policy, countries seeking diplomatic relations with People's Republic of China (PRC, Mainland China) must break official relations with the Republic of China (ROC, Taiwan) and vice versa.
  - India’s stand has been of recognising the “One China policy” since 1949 but since 2010 India stopped the use of the “One China Policy” in the backdrop of increased Chinese aggressions at the Line of Actual Control.

One Country Two Systems (OCTS)
Recently China’s National People's Congress (NPC) approved Hong Kong National Security Law. This brought a decades-old policy of the People's Republic of China back into focus — One Country Two Systems.

About One Country Two Systems policy
- It was originally proposed to unify China and Taiwan, which was rejected by Taiwan.
- The idea resurfaced when China started talks with Britain and Portugal, who were running Hong Kong and Macau, respectively, as colonies.
- Under OCTS model, China proposed that, Hong Kong and Macau, can have different economic and political systems from that of mainland China, while being part of China.
  - Likewise, Hong Kong returned to Chinese control in 1997, and Macau's sovereignty was transferred in 1999.
  - Both regions became Special Administrative Regions (SAR) of China with their own currencies, economic and legal systems, but defence and foreign affairs would be decided by China.
  - Also, Hong Kongers have freedom of assembly and speech, and some democratic rights, which are not available in mainland China.
  - These freedoms are protected by the Basic Law, a mini constitution that guides relationship between Hong Kong and China.

1.2. INDIA-TIBET

Why in News?
China has completed construction of a strategically significant highway in Tibet, enabling greater access to remote areas along the disputed border with Arunachal Pradesh in India.

Facts about Tibet
- Often dubbed as ‘Asia’s Water Tower’, Tibet’s glaciers feed Asia’s great rivers, the Brahmaputra, Mekong, Yangtze, Indus, Yellow and Salween. Mineral water from the plateau has become one of the region’s first commercially tapped resources.
- China’s biggest copper deposit is at Tibet’s Yulong copper mine. Tibet also has large iron, lead, zinc, and cadmium deposits, minerals China needs to feed its booming economy. Geologists believe that Tibet also possess significant crude oil and natural gas reserves.
- Buddhism was introduced in Tibet by Indians. It is the home of Dalai Lama, religious leader deeply respected by the people of India.
- After Panchsheel Agreement or the “Agreement on Trade and Intercourse between the Tibet region of China and India (1954)”, India gave up extra territorial rights in Tibet such as... military escorts, post offices, telegraph etc. Thus India accepted the principle that Tibet constitutes an integral part of China.

Tibet Policy and Support Act (TPSA) of USA, 2020
- TPSA calls for the establishment of a U.S. consulate in Tibet’s main city of Lhasa, the absolute right of Tibetans to choose a successor to the Dalai Lama and the preservation of Tibet’s environment.
- It formally acknowledges Central Tibetan Administration (CTA) as the legitimate institution reflecting the aspirations of the Tibetan diaspora around the world.

1.3. INDIA-BANGLADESH

Why in News?
The year 2021 marked the golden jubilee (50 years) of 1971 India-Pakistan war that led to the liberation of Bangladesh.

Background of India-Bangladesh relations
- India was one of the first countries to recognize Bangladesh and establish diplomatic relations immediately after its independence in December 1971.
- Trade relations: Bangladesh is India’s biggest trading partner in South Asia (nearly $9.5 Bn).
  - To address trade imbalance, India has offered duty free access to multiple Bangladeshi products and is developing 10 Integrated Check Post with state-of-the-art facilities.
- Military cooperation: The armed forces from both sides regularly conduct joint drills like exercise Sampriti and Milan. India has also extended $500 million line of credit to Bangladesh for defence imports from India.
- Connectivity:
  - Both the governments are restoring the pre-1965 rail links and other connectivity links that existed between India and Bangladesh. For E.g., railway link between Haldibari in India and Chilahati in Bangladesh was recently inaugurated and work on Akhaura-Agartala rail link is underway.
  - Both countries are committed for early implementation of Bangladesh, Bhutan, Nepal and India (BBIN), Motor Vehicles Agreement (MVA), 2015 for the regulation of passenger, personnel and cargo vehicular traffic among the four South Asian neighbors.
  - Bangladesh has also recently granted permission to use its inland route and ports of Chittagong and Mongla for transshipment of goods to northeast Indian states.
- Border Management: India shares its longest border with Bangladesh. The ratification of the Land Boundary Agreement in 2015 and the delimitation of the maritime boundary in the Bay of Bengal in 2014 led to the peaceful resolution of long pending border disputes between the countries.
- Tourism: Bangladesh accounts for more than 35% of India’s international medical patients and contributes more than 50% of India’s revenue from medical tourism.

  - Ports of call are intermediate stops for a ship on its scheduled journey for taking on supplies or fuel.

  - It is expected to be completed by 2021.
  - India has also proposed extending the highway to Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam.
1.4. INDIA-NEPAL

Why in news?
Recently, there was discontent in Nepal over reports claiming that India is undertaking construction activities in areas that Nepal has included in its map.

Facts about the issue
- The Nepal government published a map including 370 sq km with Kalapani, Lipulekh and Limpiyadhura, months after India had those areas in its map (see infographic).
- Nepal considers the 1816 Treaty of Sugauli (signed between Gurkha rulers of Kathmandu and East India Company) as only authentic document on boundary delineation.
  - Sugauli Treaty marks Kali river (called Mahakali in Nepal) as north-western border with India.
- However, origin of Kali river is interpreted differently.
  - For Nepal, river originates from Limpiyadhura in the higher Himalayas, giving it access to a triangular-shaped land defined by Limpiyadhura-Lipulekh and Kalapani.
  - For India, river begins in the village of Kalapani, which reduces Nepal’s territorial demand.
- Significance of the region
  - Lipulekh pass has been used by pilgrims and tourists on their way to Kailash Mansarovar.
  - Height of the Lipulekh pass aids India’s surveillance of Chinese movements.
- Recent skirmishes in the relations was earlier caused by 2015 border blockade following protests by Madhesis (people of Indian ancestry residing in the Terai of Nepal) and some other ethnic groups against marginalisation of their interests in the Nepalese constitution.

1.5. INDIA- BHUTAN

Why in news?
For the first time China included Bhutan’s eastern sectors to the boundary dispute between the two countries.

More in News
- China has attempted to stop UNDP’s Global Environment Facility (GEF) funding for Sakteng Wildlife Sanctuary (in eastern Bhutan), claiming it was disputed territory but was overruled.
  - So far, dispute was on Jakarlung, Pasamling and Doklam plateau.
• Bhutan has always maintained silence on its boundary negotiations with China, and it does not have any formal diplomatic relations with China.
  ○ So far both countries have held 24 rounds of boundary talks between 1984 and 2016, concentrated mainly on north and west Bhutan regions.
• India is concerned that Chinese presence in Doklam and other areas near Bhutan would bring China closer to India’s vulnerable “chicken’s neck” or Siliguri corridor. Bhutan also serves as a buffer between India and China.
  ○ In 2017, Chinese army had intruded into Doklam plateau which is Bhutanese territory, lying at the trijunction between India, Bhutan and China.
• India-Bhutan Friendship Treaty of 2007 enjoins both sides to “cooperate closely with each other on issues relating to their national interests”.

1.6. INTER-COUNTRY RIVER DISPUTES

Why in news?
The recent flooding in north Bihar (the Mithilanchal region) indicates that flood control in Bihar is contingent upon inter-governmental river-basin cooperation between India and Nepal.

About Indo-Pacific

- It is a geographical construct that has emerged as a substitute to the long prevalent “Asia-Pacific” which represented the eastwards shift of global developments from Euro-Atlantic dimension.
- It is an integrated theatre that combines the Indian Ocean and the Pacific Ocean and the land masses that surround them.
  - Since it is primarily a maritime space, the Indo-Pacific is also associated with maritime security and cooperation.
- Different countries interpret the region differently. Countries like US describe the Indo-Pacific as the region that starts at the Western shore of the Americas and ends at the shores of the Indian subcontinent. For India and Japan, the concept is much broader in expanse, extending to the shores of African continent.
- Major stakeholders in the region include: India, USA, Australia, Japan, ASEAN countries and other maritime nations that occupy the strategic positions in the Indian and Pacific Ocean including small island countries.

Reasons for global shift towards Indo-Pacific

- Important Sea Lines of Communication (SLOC): Presence of key choke points, from Mozambique Channel and Bab-el-Mandeb in the west to Lombok Strait in the east.
- Trade and Economy: Region includes 65% of the world population; accounts for 62% of world GDP; and contributes to 46% of the world’s merchandise trade.
- Richness in Natural resources: Including Offshore Hydrocarbons, Methane hydrates, Sea Bed minerals, Rare earth metals, fisheries etc.

Supply Chain Resilience Initiative (SCRI)

Currently, Trade ministers of India, Australia, and Japan decided to launch an initiative on supply chain resilience (first proposed by Japan) and invited like-minded countries in the Indo-Pacific region to join the initiative.

About SCRI
- It is an approach that helps a country to ensure that it has diversified its supply risk across a clutch of supplying nations instead of being dependent on just one or a few.
- Unanticipated events — whether natural, such as tsunamis, earthquakes or even a pandemic; or manmade, such as an armed conflict in a region — that disrupt supplies from a particular country or even intentional halts to trade, could adversely impact economic activity in the destination country.
- Objective is to-
  - Attract foreign direct investment to turn the Indo-Pacific into an economic powerhouse.
  - Build a mutually complementary relationship among partner countries.

About Global Supply Chain
- Global supply chains are networks that can span across multiple continents and countries for the purpose of sourcing and supplying goods and services.

8. ISSUES RELATED TO SECURITY

8.1. NUCLEAR DISARMAMENT

Why in news?
According to recently released Stockholm International Peace Research Institute (SIPRI) 2021 report, the overall number of nuclear warheads in global military stockpiles now appears to be increasing.

What is Nuclear Disarmament?
- Nuclear disarmament is the act of reducing or eliminating nuclear weapons. It aims towards achieving a state where nuclear weapons are eliminated. The term denuclearization is also used to describe the process leading to complete nuclear disarmament.
- UN sought to eliminate nuclear weapons in the first resolution adopted by UN General Assembly in 1946.

<tr>
<th>Key Treaties for Nuclear Disarmament, Arms Control and Non-Proliferation</th>

<td>Partial Test Ban Treaty (PTBT), 1963</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of nuclear weapons (NPT), 1970</td>
<td>It seeks to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons, to promote peaceful uses of nuclear energy and to move towards nuclear disarmament. • It is the only binding commitment in a multilateral treaty to the goal of disarmament by the nuclear-weapon States.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty (CTBT)</td>
<td>It is an international treaty that bans all nuclear explosions in all environments. It opened for signature in 1996 but has not yet entered into force.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Treaty on the Prohibition of nuclear weapons (TPNW)</td>
<td>It is a legally binding instrument to prohibit nuclear weapons, leading towards their total elimination. • It includes a comprehensive set of prohibitions on participating in any nuclear weapon activities which include undertakings to develop, test, produce, acquire, possess, stockpile, use or threaten to use nuclear weapons. • It entered into force recently in 2020.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Key highlights of the report
- Indian nuclear warheads increased from 150 at the start of 2020 to 156 at the start of 2021.
- Pakistan and China’s nuclear warheads have also increased.
- Russia and the U.S. together possessed over 90% of global nuclear weapons.

These increasing numbers of nuclear warheads highlights a worrisome sign for Nuclear Disarmament as it indicates that the declining trend of global nuclear arsenals since the end of the Cold War has stalled.
India’s role in global nuclear disarmament

India has always been an ardent supporter of multilateral nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation efforts.

Conference on Disarmament (CD)
- It was formed in 1979 as the single multilateral disarmament negotiation forum of the international community, after agreement was reached among Member States during the first special session of the UN General Assembly (UNGA) devoted to disarmament (1978).
- Since the conclusion of the negotiation of the CTBT in 1996, the CD remains deadlocked and has not been able to reach consensus on a programme of work and thus to commence substantive deliberations.

India’s nuclear doctrine
- Building and maintaining a credible minimum deterrent.
- A posture of "No First Use". Nuclear weapons will only be used in retaliation against a nuclear attack on India.
- Nuclear retaliation to a first strike will be massive and designed to inflict unacceptable damage.
- Non-use of nuclear weapons against non-nuclear weapon states.
- Continued commitment to the goal of a nuclear weapon free world, through global, verifiable and non-discriminatory nuclear disarmament.

8.5. INTEGRATED THEATRE COMMANDS

Why in news?

Recently, the Chief of Defence Staff (CDS) chaired a meeting with the Vice Chiefs of the three Services among others, in the backdrop of concerns about the proposed model of the Integrated Theatre Commands.

About Integrated Theatre Commands

- An integrated theatre command envisages a unified command of the three Services, under a single commander, for geographical theatres that are of security concern.
  - The commander of such a force will be able to bring to bear all resources at his disposal — from the IAF, the Army and the Navy — with seamless efficacy.
The idea of Integrated Theatre commands has been proposed by both the Kargil review committee as well as D B Shekatkar committee.

- Shekatkar committee in 2016 recommended creating 3 integrated theatre commands:
  - Northern command for the China border,
  - Western command for the Pakistan border and
  - Southern command for the maritime borders.

- The current theatreisation model under consideration seeks to set up at least six new integrated commands.

- The theaterisation model will have the inbuilt flexibility to fall back on current command and control structures to eliminate the possibility of the country getting caught off guard by its adversaries during the crucial transition phase.

- India’s Chief of Defence Staff has been given the mandate to steer the theatreisation drive. It is expected that jointness among three services would be rolled out by 2023.

About CDS

- CDS act as the principal military adviser to the defence minister on all tri-services matters.

  - Special courts are set up under National Investigation Agency (NIA) Act and in the absence of such special courts, with sessions courts.

| Settling maritime disputes through peaceful means and on the basis of international law | • Nations should settle maritime disputes based on UN Convention on the Law of the Sea.
• E.g. India resolved its disputes with Bangladesh based on it. |
| Jointly facing natural disasters and maritime threats created by non-state actors | • Globally, acts of piracy and armed robbery increased by 20% during 1st-half of 2020 despite declined maritime traffic volume.

9.1. NON-ALIGNED MOVEMENT

Why in news?
Recently, Non-Aligned Movement (NAM) has completed 60 years.

About Non-Aligned Movement
- NAM was created and founded during the independence struggles of Africa, Asia, Latin America and at the height of the Cold War.
  - The idea was to declare themselves as "non-aligned" from either of the two nascent military blocks (NATO and the Warsaw Pact).
  - A key role was played in this process by the then Heads of State of Egypt, Ghana, India, Indonesia and Yugoslavia, who later became the founding fathers of the movement.
- "Ten Principles of Bandung" proclaimed during Bandung Asian-African Conference (April, 1955) were adopted later as the main goals of NAM.
- NAM’s first conference - The Belgrade Conference held in 1961 under the leadership of India, Yugoslavia, Egypt, Ghana, and Indonesia.
- The policy of NAM was based on the 5 principles of Panchsheel.
- After end of cold war, movement seemed to have lost its relevance but during Havana summit (2006), member countries reaffirmed their commitment to the ideals, principles and purposes upon which the movement was founded and with the United Nations Charter.
- It has 120 members comprising 53 countries from Africa, 39 from Asia, 26 from Latin America and the Caribbean and 2 from Europe (Belarus, Azerbaijan).
  - There are 17 countries and 10 international organizations that are Observers at NAM.

9.2. BILATERAL INVESTMENT TREATIES

Why in news?
Recently, the Standing Committee on External Affairs submitted its report on ‘India and Bilateral Investment Treaties’.

About Bilateral Investment Treaties (BITs)
- BITs are international agreements establishing the terms and conditions for private investment by nationals and companies of one state in another state to promote and protect foreign private investments in each other’s territories.
- BIT establishes minimum guarantees between the two countries regarding the treatment of foreign investments, such as
  - National treatment (treating foreign investors at par with domestic companies),
  - Fair and equitable treatment (in accordance with international law),
  - Protection from expropriation (limiting each country’s ability to take over foreign investments in its territory).
  - Protection of investors’ right (through an alternative dispute resolution mechanism whereby an investor can approach International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) rather than suing the host State in its own courts).
- There are more than 2,500 BITs active in the world today and United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) maintains a database of all BITs between all states.

India's Experience with BITs
- India signed its first BIT with the United Kingdom in 1994 and subsequently with 83 countries. These BITs were negotiated based on the Indian Model BIT of 1993.
- Since then, India has: (i) signed new BITs with only four countries and (ii) terminated its older BITs with 77 countries.
- These BITs have been one the major drivers of FDI inflows into India between 2001-2012.
- Shocked by the award and notices, India revised its Model BIT in 2015.
- In 2011, an international tribunal ordered India to pay 4.10 million Australian dollars to White Industries under the 1999 Indo-Australia BIT.
- Simultaneously, India started receiving multiple notices under its BITs, due to the retrospective taxation debacle and the cancellation of 26 licenses by the Supreme Court.

  - They are highly prone to the mounting debt-to-GDP ratios beyond 50 percent, and around 40 percent of their external debt owed to China.
About Debt Trap Diplomacy

- The term was coined by Indian geo-strategist Brahma Chellaney in 2017.

Creation of Debt Trap Diplomacy

| Developing nations are often lured by China’s offer of cheap loans for transformative infrastructural projects. |
| These developing countries, mostly low- or middle-income countries, remain incapable of carrying on with repayments. |
